

Vader roeit langzaam naar de horizon.

A photograph capturing a serene sunset scene. The sky is a deep, warm orange, with the sun's glow reflecting on the calm water of a beach. In the foreground, a person stands on the sand, their silhouette small against the vast landscape. To their left, a bicycle is parked. The scene is framed by the dark, silhouetted shapes of trees or bushes on the left side. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

Het meisje blijft wachten tot de zon ondergaat.

Vader is niet teruggekomen.
